01. About the Expo

Healthcare+ Expo Taiwan is the world's first international exhibition initiated by hospitals. Since its inception in 2017, the Expo has highlighted Taiwan's cutting-edge innovations across healthcare, ICT, and biotechnology sectors, ranking as Taiwan's sixth-largest international exhibition and a premier medical trade show in APAC. This prestigious event attracts over 150,000 attendees annually and facilitates valuable connections among more than 3,000 international professionals and buyers, establishing itself as an essential platform for global healthcare leaders to network and collaborate.

As the world's largest AI supply chain, Taiwan continues to pioneer advancements in AI-driven healthcare and biomedical technologies. The 2025 Expo will display excellence in MedTech, BioTech, and HealthTech innovations — including diagnostic tools, early disease detection methodologies, revolutionary treatment approaches, and streamlined management systems — all designed to elevate healthcare standards and address global health challenges.

03. Healthcare+ Expo Themes

Medical Institutions

Medical Institutions

Taiwan's inaugural global hospital-themed expo brings together leading healthcare institutions to showcase advanced therapeutics, medical devices, information systems, and patient-centric services. The event facilitates cross-sector innovation through its medical demonstration center while accelerating international healthcare collaboration and industry growth.

2024 Key Exhibitors

Cathay General Hospital, Chang Gung Medical Hospital, Changhua Christian Hospital, China Medical University Hospital, Chung Shan Medical University Hospital, E-DA Hospital, Far Eastern Memorial Hospital, Fu Jen Catholic University Hospital, Kaohsiung Medical University, MacKay Memorial Hospital, National Taiwan University Hospital, Shin Kong Wu Ho-Su Memorial Hospital, Taipei Medical University Hospital, Taipei Veterans General Hospital, Tri-Service General Hospital, Tzu Chi Hospital

(the names on this list are in alphabetical order)

03. Healthcare+ Expo Themes

MedTech

Smart Hospital Solutions

The intelligent systems create digital twin hospitals that enhance operational efficiency, optimize electrical infrastructure, and integrate smart care solutions. These innovations reduce burdens on medical professionals, elevate care quality, and implement ESG strategies for sustainable healthcare development.

Medical Devices & Equipment

Specialized medical devices meet precision treatment requirements across multiple disciplines including pathology, radiology, surgery, telemedicine, rehabilitation, and pharmaceutical automation. The comprehensive integration of R&D, manufacturing, and clinical supply chains provides exceptional procurement options for global healthcare systems.

Digital Health Technologies

Advanced SaMD, AI/ML, cybersecurity, HIT, MDDS, MDI, etc., integrate and generate vast hospital data, expediting digital transformation by enabling sophisticated analytics and automated workflows for diagnosis, early warning, healthcare services, and research.

2024 Key Exhibitors

ASUS, BenQ Group, BriteMED, Chieftek Precision, Chunghwa Telecom, Darwin Precisions Corp., Delta Electronics, Der Sheng, Diwei, Hiwin Technologies, I Jang, Industrial Technology Research Institute, InnoCare, Intel, Metal Industries Research and Development Centre, Microsoft, Mobisnet, Murata Machinery Taiwan, Nan Ya Plastics, National Applied Research Laboratories, NEXCOM, New Taipei City Biotechnology Alliance, QT Medical, Quanta, Seda Chemical Products, Varian, Wistron

03. Healthcare+ Expo Themes

BioTech

Biopharmaceutical

The Expo highlights AI screening platforms, AI-driven drug design, advanced OEM/ODM /CDMO, and smart manufacturing solutions. These technologies connect global partners across the pharmaceutical development ecosystem, including biotech, clinical trials, drug testing, manufacturing, and raw materials supply.

Precision Diagnostics

Displaying AI for early disease screening, drug resistance detection, precision diagnostics, and personalized treatments. The holistic precision testing services — detection kits, lab equipment, reagents, gene diagnosis tools, and personalized medicine solutions — establishing Asia's largest precision testing network.

Regenerative Medicine

The enactment of new regenerative medicine treatment legislation opens substantial business opportunities in Taiwan's cell therapy market. The Expo features innovative exosome, stem cell, immunological and regenerative therapies, complemented by intelligent cell production, culture systems, reagents, and automated cell therapy services.

2024 Key Exhibitors

ACT Genomics, Asia Pathogenomics, aetherAI, AUO Display Plus, AUO Health, BIOTOOLS, Ever Supreme Bio Technology, General Biologicals, GeneReach Biotechnology, Genetech Biotech, Genomics, HippoScreen, International Laboratory Developed Tests and Services Industry Alliance, Leadgene Biomedical, Molsentech, National Health Research Institutes, PharmiGENE, Pharmaessentia Corp., Sofiva Genomics, Superlab Co., Ltd., Sysmex Taiwan, Taiwan Society of Microbiology, Wei Ming Pharmaceutical

04. Strategic Global Network

1-on-1 Business Matchmaking Meetings

To facilitate global expansion for exhibitors, the event strategically engages pivotal industries by inviting global distributors, agents, healthcare institutions, and corporate buyers. Through the appoint system of “Healthcare+ B2B Platform,” it precisely connects exhibitors with prospective buyers for substantive negotiations and intl’ collaboration.

“ I was particularly impressed by Taiwan’s AI innovations, and swift progress in advanced therapies like cancer diagnostic kit, showcased at the Expo. ”

Carlos Gouvea | Brazilian In-Vitro Diagnostics Chamber, Executive President

“ Taiwan medical technology is robotic. Many companies at the Expo provide medical devices that can address the challenge of a shortage of doctors in South Africa. ”

Tanya Vogt | The South African Medical Technology Industry Association, Executive Officer

“ I saw Taiwan’s hospitals are equipped with high-quality facilities and incorporate a wide range of cutting-edge technologies, making it truly worthwhile to come here to learn and explore more business opportunities. ”

Andrzej Sokółowski | The Polish Association of Private Hospitals, President

“ I’ve found some promising opportunities within the UAE but have struggled to find the right partners to collaborate with. Your platform has proven to be an excellent solution, finally connecting us with the right opportunities to achieve our goals. ”

Krunal Javeri | Emitac Healthcare Solutions

“ This event was incredibly productive and insightful. Even the tour to Insight Medical Solution’s facility was particularly impactful, as it helped me successfully connect with the right business partners for collaboration, making the experience truly invaluable. ”

► Booth Allocation

1. Exhibitors shall select their booth location(s) according to the floor plan provided by the Expo organizer. No booths allow to be divided, occupy or affect the aisles.
2. Booths registered under the same company/corporation, or shared booths, must sit next to each other or be placed back-to-back. Such booths are not permitted to be positioned face-to-face.
3. The priority of booth allocation is determined by the number of booths booked and paid for (e.g., exhibitor with 20 booths goes first, followed by the one with 18). For exhibitors booking the same number of booths, priority will be given to those who completed payment earlier.
4. Booth allocation will proceed in two rounds:
 - Round 1: For exhibitors with eight or more booths that are fully paid on or before March 31.
 - Round 2: For exhibitors with booth(s) paid on or before May 31. Round 2 will commence after the Exhibitor Briefing Session on Friday, June 13. Booths for exhibitors not participating in the allocation process will be assigned by the Expo organizer. No requests for changes will be accepted thereafter.
5. Exhibitors who make payments after May31 will be contacted individually by the Expo organizer for booth allocation.
6. The Expo organizer reserves the right to modify floor plans and booth allocations where appropriate or when such modifications serve the best interests of exhibitors.

Note

1. Details regarding booth allocation, floor plans, and joining instructions will be emailed to exhibitors in due course.
2. The Expo organizer reserves the right to modify floor plans, dimensions, and locations of booths when necessary. Exhibitors who may be affected will be informed should any change be made.
